

Responsible Art Market

RAM

RAM London Committee

Intelligence Applied: What's next for the UK art market?

Tuesday, 26 September 2023

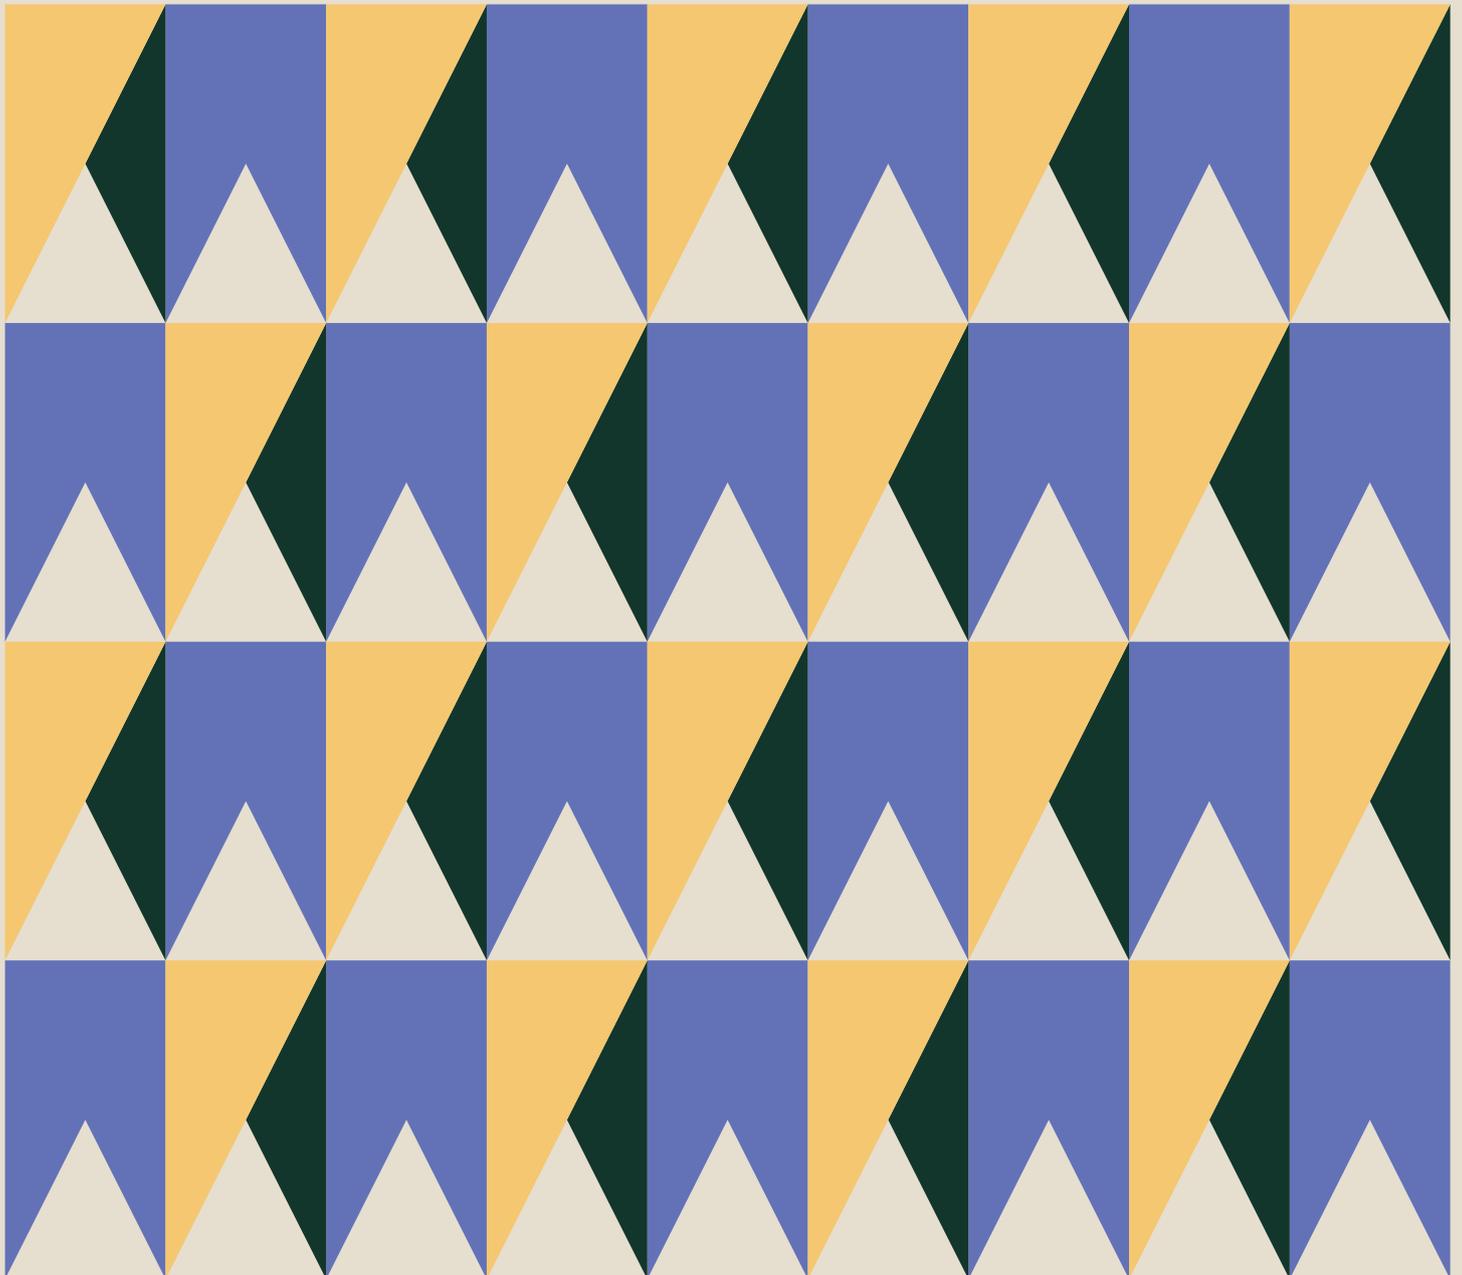

9:00 – 13:00

PHILLIPS

30 Berkeley Square

London W1J 6EX

7th floor

Intelligence Applied: What's next for the UK art market?

Innovative and adaptive: Qualities the UK art market has demonstrated to stay competitive in 2023. Looking ahead to 2024, how can today's developments help us shape the UK art market of tomorrow? From Artificial Intelligence, to AML interventions and keeping artwork on the move. Just some of the "hot topics" our expert speakers will be unpacking in this fast paced seminar with 100% human intelligence applied!

09:00	Coffee & Registration
09:25	Welcome & opening remarks Mathilde Heaton, Phillips Auctioneers & the RAM London Committee
09:30	AI: What's The Fuss? Eric Drass aka Shardcore, Artist & Curator
10:10	AI in the Art Market: a practical reality? "Artificial Intelligence" - the buzzword of 2023, inciting both fascination and fear, but one that is likely here to stay. So how is/ can AI be used in the art market and what are the benefits, pitfalls and risks? With human intelligence applied and a practical focus, our expert panel will explore this hot topic providing food for thought on what we should be considering and doing to shape the Brave New World of AI in the art market. Chair: Anders Petterson, ArtTactic Sarah Allen, Hauser & Wirth Alan Baker, Farrer & Co. Eric Drass, Artist & Curator Andy Ellis, Phillips Auctioneers
11:00	Coffee & Networking break
11:20	Keeping Art in Motion Post Brexit, what opportunities lie ahead to streamline the movement of art? Our expert speakers will consider recent proposals, including the government consultation on the Temporary Admission regime. Chair: Paul Hewitt, The Society of London Art Dealers Claire Hallinan, The National Gallery Anthea Peers, Christie's
12:00	AML Supervision: Perspectives, takeaways and tips HMRC's lead shapers of supervisory interventions for Art Market Participants will discuss their ambitions for finessing the conduct of their audits, share findings and provide tips for success. There will be opportunities for audience engagement. Chair: Rakhi Talwar, RT Compliance Tracey Griffiths, HMRC, Technical Lead Alan Patrick, HMRC, Strategic Lead
12:40	Questions & Discussion
12:55	Closing Remarks The RAM London Committee

Registration

Register for the event online and by Friday 22 September 2023, 23:30 BST using the following link:

Registration_intelligence-applied-whats-next-for-the-uk-art-market

You may not register at the venue

Registration Fees

£35 for members of the Art Law Foundation, LAPADA, BADA, SLAD, PAIAM, AWITA, GCC, Art Lawyers Association, Museum staff

£45 for non-members

£15 for professional artists and trainee lawyers

£10 for students

Conference attendees will benefit from a 50% discount on all ticket categories for the LAPADA art fair

<https://lapadalondon.com/>.

With the support of

CRUZIER

MIRABAUD

With the collaboration of

PHILLIPS

FDA fondation pour le droit de l'art art law foundation

ART. ANTIQUES. COLLECTIONS
LAPADA
— BERKELEY SQUARE FAIR —
27 SEPT - 1 OCT 2023

The Responsible Art Market Initiative

Raising awareness of issues and risks faced by the art industry, and providing a forum to share practical guidance and responsible practices.

www.responsibleartmarket.org